

GIVE KIDS A BRAKE...

STOP for the School Bus

Passing a stopped school bus with its upper red lights flashing is not only against the law but dangerous. Drivers and vehicle owners will be charged if their vehicle illegally passes a stopped school bus.

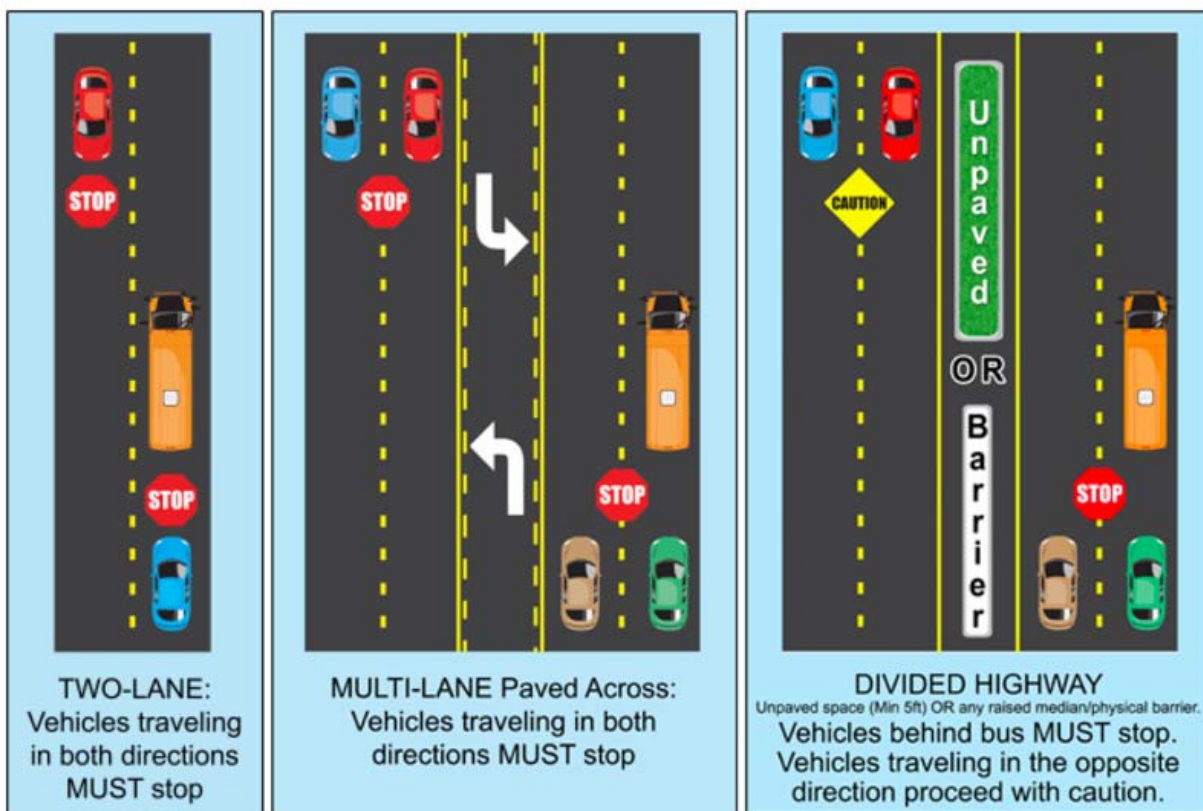

First Offence:

- $400 to $2,000 plus six demerit points

Each subsequent offence:

- $1,000 to $4,000, six demerit points and possible jail time up to six months.

WHEN TO STOP:

STOP Students lives depend on you